

JIM BRADLEY ADL LEGACY SCHOLARSHIP

NOW ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS

PURPOSE:

A scholarship provided to an Island grade 12 student that has plans to pursue a career related to the PEI dairy industry.

The scholarship is named after the former CEO of ADL Jim Bradley to recognize his leadership in the PEI dairy industry over his 36-year career with ADL and 14 years as ADL CEO.

AMOUNT: $1,000.00

CRITERIA:

- The $1,000.00 scholarship is available to any PEI high school student entering post-secondary education (college or university) to pursue a career related to the PEI dairy industry e.g. animal science, veterinary medicine, agricultural business, nutrition, laboratory science, etc.
- Applicants must provide: their current education/school, the name of the post-secondary program that they have been accepted to, updated school transcripts, a 500-word essay outlining their future career goals and how they relate to the PEI dairy industry and summarizing their leadership experience in the community.
- Applicants must also include two references, one of which must be a PEI dairy industry stakeholder or industry representative.

APPLICATION DEADLINE:

May 21, 2023.

To request a copy of the scholarship application, please email ssantiago@adl.ca.

Completed applications must also be emailed to ssantiago@adl.ca no later than 5:00 p.m. on May 21, 2023.